Fall Line-up of Speakers

We have speakers confirmed for the three meetings in autumn in which we have talks. (In December there will be a special holiday activity in lieu of a speaker.)

September 21

Martha Tatarnic (<https://marthatatarnic.ca>) was recommended by several of you. She is the priest at St. George's Anglican in St. Catharines, a co-host of a podcast, and the author of several books, including one just out: Anne Boleyn. Reputation, Revolution, Religion and the Queen Who Changed History.

Her talk to us is entitled Rethinking Anne Boleyn: How a Leader of the English Reformation Got Framed as a Bad Woman.

I have asked Martha to bring some copies of this book to our meeting for those of us who might like to buy it.

October 19

This speaker too was recommended by some of you. Sherry Gibson is the owner of ONESource Moving Solutions, www.onesourcemoving.ca. This is not your ordinary moving company. Instead they not only move goods, but assist people in navigating transitions.

The title of her talk is Downsizing and Decluttering.

November 16

Larissa Zwar is a professor at Brock University who specializes in the social psychology of aging. In her research she studies how different forms of stigma impact long-term care for older adults.

Advocacy and National Day for Truth and Reconciliation

National Day
for Truth and Reconciliation
September 30th

As an Advocacy action we are asking our members to wear an EVERY Child Matters T-shirt, an orange shirt, or something else in keeping with Indigenous culture to our September meeting. Marilyn Slater will take pictures of those who dress for the occasion. Then on Sept. 30, which is the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, we will put it on our Facebook page and website as well as hopefully on Ontario's and National's website. We may even put it in our local newspaper.

Truth and Reconciliation Day is a day dedicated to honoring the survivors of Canada's residential school system, their families, and communities, as well as remembering the children who never returned home. The day was established following Call to Action 80 of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission and became a federal statutory holiday with the passage of Bill C-5 in 2021. It aligns with Orange Shirt Day, a grassroots initiative emphasizing that "Every Child Matters" and encouraging Canadians to wear orange in remembrance.
